INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL UNIVERSITY

- The IMU Medical programme focuses on Medical Sciences for the first 2.5 years. Students then proceed to undertake Clinical Training either at IMU's Clinical Campuses in the southern part of Malaysia or at a Partner Medical School (PMS) overseas.
- IMU's curriculum emphasizes clinical application of basic science from an early stage. IMU is the first to incorporate the USMLE Step 1 Preparatory Course into the IMU medical curriculum across Semesters 1 to 5. This is to allow IMU medical graduates to begin early preparation to sit for USMLE Step 1 examination that opens the door towards United States residency opportunities.
- At IMU, Clinical electives are an important part of undergraduate medical training in order to enhance learning experience. Students of its medical programme can choose to do their clinical electives in selected hospitals in the USA and enhance their learning experience in a different healthcare system.

The Newcastle MBBS course is an integrated programme which is hands-on. We develop your clinical skills from the outset, and you meet real patients early in the course.

CLINICAL PLACEMENTS

Throughout Years 3, 4 and 5, you undertake your clinical learning in the government hospitals and community clinics of the state of Johor. These will include:

- Hospital Sultan Ismail
- Hospital Sultanah Aminah
- Hospital Permai
- Hospital Sultanah Nora Ismail (Batu Pahat)
- Hospital Enche' Besar Hajjah Kalsom (Kluang)
- Klinik Kesihatan Gelang Patah
- Klinik Kesihatan Taman Universiti
- Klinik Kesihatan Sultan Ismail

AFTER YOU QUALIFY

- Upon successful completion of the entire programme you will be awarded Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MB BS) Honours, which will be conferred by Newcastle University UK.
- The Newcastle University MBBS medical degrees awarded to NUMed graduates lead to professional recognition and are subject to the requirements of both the UK General Medical Council (GMC) and the Malaysian Medical Council (MMC).
- After you graduate you will be eligible for provisional registration with both the GMC and MMC, and will have to complete a compulsory internship or housemanship. After successfully completing the compulsory period of housemanship training you will be eligible for full registration.

HOUSEMANSHIP

International graduates are very unlikely to obtain a pre-registration internship in Malaysia in a government hospital, and you should therefore ensure that your own country will offer you a house officer post after qualifying at NUMed.

Visa Process for International students:

How to get a Malaysia Student Visa?

The process of getting a Malaysia student visa is divided into the following steps:

1. Getting accepted into a Malaysian educational institution.
2. Applying for a Visa Approval Letter (VAL).
3. Applying for a Malaysian entry visa (if you are a Malaysian visa-subject national).
4. Appearing at the immigration checkpoint in Malaysia (after you travel).
5. Registering at your educational institution.
6. Getting your Student Pass at the Malaysia Immigration Department.

How to apply for a Malaysian Student Visa Approval Letter (VAL)?

Once you are accepted into a Malaysian educational institution, you have two options of how to apply for a Visa Approval Letter:

1. You can apply yourself via the Education Malaysia Global Services (EMGS) website, or
2. You can entrust the application to your university.

In order to apply, you must obtain all the required documents which prove that you meet the eligibility to receive a student visa for Malaysia. Then, you must create an account on the EMGS website.

Since the application is done online, you have to upload electronic copies of your documents.

You also have to pay a visa processing fee, which changes depending on the country, as well as a personal security bond.

If your visa is approved, you will receive the Visa Approval Letter (VAL) via email. You must print it and keep both the electronic and version printed version with you.

Malaysian Entry Visa for Foreign Students

After getting a Visa Approval Letter, certain nationals also need a visa to enter Malaysia.

The type of entry visa required for a Student Pass is a Visa with Reference, which means you must have authorization from the Malaysian Immigration Department (i.e. the Visa Approval Letter (VAL)).

How to apply for a Malaysian Student Entry Visa?

You can apply for an entry visa for Malaysia through one of the two following ways:

- In person, at a Malaysia Representative Office abroad (Embassy/Consulate). The Malaysia visa application process is as follows:
 - Find the nearest Malaysian Embassy/Consulate and check their website for opening hours/requirements.
 - Download and complete the Malaysia visa application form.
 - Gather the required documents and submit them along with your passport, two copies of the Malaysia visa application form, and a copy of your VAL.
 - You will receive your visa in the form of a sticker affixed to your passport.
- Only nationals of the following countries can apply for a Malaysian visa online:
 - China
 - India
 - Sri Lanka
 - Nepal
 - Myanmar
 - Bangladesh
 - Pakistan
 - Bhutan
 - Serbia
 - Montenegro

After you arrive in Malaysia

- Once you enter Malaysia, you must appear before the immigration officers at the point of entry and request to enter. You must have your printed VOA, your entry visa, and any other supporting documents with you.
- Next, you have to register at your educational institution and undergo a medical screening within seven days of arrival. The screening must be done at a clinic which is registered with EMGS.
- After you have registered and undergone the medical screening, you can request to get your Malaysia Student Pass and i-Kad.

What is the Malaysia Student Pass processing time?

- Overall, the entire process from applying for a Malaysian Student Visa Approval Letter (VAL) to receiving your Student Pass takes 4-6 weeks.
- The Visa Approval Letter processing time is 14 days. The Malaysian entry visa processing time is between one and three weeks (unless it's an eVisa, which is processed within 2 days).

How long is a Malaysia Student Pass valid?

For most courses, you will receive a 1-year Student Pass, which you can renew accordingly.

Student Visa for Malaysia

For Indian students who are planning to study in Malaysia, given below are the requirements and steps on how to apply for a Malaysia student visa from India.

The process is made easy and simple for every aspiring student. First, here's what students will need:

Requirements to Apply for a Malaysian Student Visa:

- Student visa application form completed and signed by the applicant
- Offer letter from the chosen educational institution approved by the pass & permit division in the Immigration Headquarters of Malaysia
- Two passport sized photographs
- Two photocopies of your Passport
- Academic transcript(s) of records
- Proof of full-time course of study approved by the Minister of Home Affairs
- Proof of financial capability to meet course and other expenses
- Health certificate
- Evidence of security and personal bond
- Students have to show their approval letters upon arrival

Steps in Applying for a Student Visa:

The Malaysian government has made the process of the application of student visa and pass easily for anyone who wants to study in the country, as students do not have to contact their local Embassy of Malaysia no more.

The steps are as follows:

Contact the institution directly

- Students can apply for a student pass directly from the chosen institution and can submit their application form directly to the particular institution.
- Students' passport must be valid for more than 1 year. If it is shorter than that period, their student pass will not be processed.

Wait for the confirmation of acceptance

- Prospective students will be informed of their application status by the Immigration Department in Malaysia through the educational institution that one has chosen. The notification of acceptance is usually sent within a week (7 days).

Send the necessary documents

- Students will need to submit all the necessary visa documents to get the student pass to study in Malaysia and send those documents to the respective institution.

Institution will send you a letter confirming your student pass

A letter of approval for student pass will be released by the Malaysian Immigration Department and be delivered to the institution upon their acceptance. The institution will then send this approval letter to students.

Inform the institution

- Before entering into Malaysia, students must inform the institution about their airport location, flight number, and arrival date and time.
- A representative from the institution will greet them at the immigration checkpoint at the Malaysian airport. Next, students' visa will be issued to them via an endorsement on their valid national passport.

Wait for your Student Pass sticker

Within 2 weeks, students' passport will be submitted to the Immigration Department and a student pass sticker will be affixed to it.

Student Visa and Pass Fees:

The expected visa fees do not exceed more than the US $29.41. Student passes usually cost around the US $17.65.

Once students have completed all the steps, they are now officially enrolled in and ready to study at the chosen Malaysian institution.
